THE OLD WOMAN AND THE RIVER

SHORTLISTED FOR THE

ARABIC FICTION

INTERNATIONAL PRIZE FOR

by Ismail Fahd Ismail translated by Sophia Vasalou

A fter the ceasefire in 1988, the devastation to the landscape of Iraq wrought by the longest war of the twentieth century—the Iran-Iraq War—becomes visible. Eight years of fighting have turned nature upside down, with vast wastelands being left behind. In southeastern Iraq, along the shores of the Shatt al-Arab River, the groves of date palm trees have withered. No longer bearing fruit, their leaves have turned a bright yellow. There, Iraqi forces had blocked the entry points of the river's tributaries and streams, preventing water from flowing to the trees and vegetation. Yet, surveying this destruction from the sky, a strip of land bursting with green can be seen. From the Shatt al-Arab River and reaching to the fringes of the western desert, it appears as a lush oasis. The secret of this fertility, sustaining villages and remaining soldiers, is unclear. But it is said that one old woman is responsible for this lifeline.

ISMAIL FAHD ISMAIL is regarded as the founder of the Kuwaiti novel. Since his first work, The Sky Was Blue, in 1970, he has published 27 novels, as well as three short story collections, two plays and several critical studies. SOPHIAVASALOU is a lecturer at the University of Birmingham. Her books include Wonder and Ibn Taymiyya's Theological Ethics.

WHEN ALL ELSE FAILS

A DARKLY HUMOROUS SAGA

SET IN POST-9/11 AMERICA

AND THE MIDDLE EAST

by Rayyan Al-Shawaf

When All Else Fails, which begins on September 12, 2001, is the story of Hunayn, a luckless and lovelorn Iraqi Christian student attending college in Orlando, Florida, after graduating from high school in Beirut. Hunayn's life is upended by 9/11—but not immediately, and not in the way that he, fearful in the aftermath of the attacks, initially expects.

As America settles into its post-9/11 "Septemberland" phase (vigilant but also overly suspicious and even paranoid), many Arab and Muslim Americans are made to feel it's no longer their home. For Hunayn, the situation proves almost the opposite. Septemberland reminds him of his most recent unhappy home, Lebanon, which he assumed he'd left behind. Tired of disconcerting experiences, Hunayn returns to Beirut. At least he knows how to navigate life here—or so he thinks.

Lebanon is also about to undergo political upheaval: a former prime minister opposed to neighboring Syria's control of the country is assassinated; subsequent popular protests compel the Syrian regime to withdraw its army; and Israel launches a war on Lebanon in retaliation for an attack by a Lebanese militant group. Hunayn finds himself aswirl in the maelstrom. And all the while, he watches from afar as Iraq, his fabled homeland and the owner of his heart, unravels in the wake of the US-led invasion.

RAYYAN AL-SHAWAF is a book critic whose reviews and essays have appeared in many high-profile publications such as the Washington Post, the Los Angeles Times, and the Boston Globe. He lives in Lebanon.

A POETRY ANTHOLOGY THAT ILLUMINATES DISPLACEMENT

Making Mirrors began on two continents, envisioned by Palestinian poet and aid worker, Jehan Bseiso, and Becky Thompson, a US-based poet changed by months of greeting refugees after their perilous journey across the Aegean Sea. This anthology uses mirrors to reflect imagistic connections that allow us to see ourselves in each other—those on rafts and those standing on the shore; those waiting/ writing in detention and those writing from places of relative safety; those who lift their children to the sky and those whose bodies are at the bottom of the sea. The poems go beyond refugee/citizen binaries and illuminate exile as a forced/creative space.

MY NAKBA A Palestinian's Odyssey of Love and Hope by Samir Toubassy

The exodus of Palestinians from their homes during the 1948 war—the Nakba, or catastrophe—is the starting point for this memoir by Samir Toubassy. But his trek to excel, while wrestling with his roots and identity as a Palestinian in the shadow of his family's expulsion is at the heart of his story.

Global business leader, philanthropist, and educator Samir Toubassy left Jaffa with his family when he was nine. Amid never-ending turbulence, we accompany him from Jaffa to Tripoli, to Beirut where he becomes a student of business and politics, to Riyadh and to London, and finally to the US, as he seeks to raise a family and build an international business career. After a long career in international business, Samir embarks on a new path, as a Harvard Advanced Leadership Senior Fellow, seeking to apply his experience to global education in the developing world.

Toubassy shatters glass ceilings that hold Palestinians back over lifetimes and generations. His race to achieve and to succeed is always inseparably tied to the fate of his homeland. Searching to regain what is lost, his memoir,  $M\gamma$  Nakba, offers the unique perspective, encouragement, and cherished lessons learned from a refugee's aspirations.

MONKEY BUSINESS The Lives and Legends of the Marx Brothers by Simon Louvish

This is the first full and properly researched biography of all five Marx Brothers—Chico, Harpo, Groucho, Gummo and Zeppo. First and foremost, this is the saga of a family whose theatrical roots stretch back to mid-19th century Germany. From Groucho Marx's first warblings with the singing Leroy Trio, this book brings to life the vanished world of America's wild and boisterous variety circuits, leading to the Marx Brothers' Broadway successes and their alliance with New York's theatrical lions, George S. Kaufman and the "Algonquin Round Table."

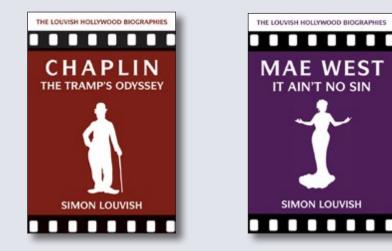

Never-before-published scripts, well-minted Marxian dialogue, and much madness and mayhem feature in this tale of the Brothers' battles with Hollywood, their films, their loves and marriages, and the story of the forgotten brother Gummo.

INDIVISIBLE Global Leaders on Shared Security edited by Ru Freeman and Kerri Kennedy

N fore than 40 global leaders and activists reflect on the state of the world, and the indivisibility of IVI lasting peace and security. Among the contributors are peacemaker Archbishop Desmond Tutu; the twenty-eight-year-old UN Secretary General's Envoy for Youth, Jayathma Wickramanayake; and the IMPAC Dublin Literary Award winner and creator of Narrative4, Colum McCann. This worldrenowned cast of writers disavow the notion that security stems from border walls, x-ray machines, armed security forces, and other militarized means of separating one population from another, instead redefining security as being inclusive and egalitarian. Together, these global citizens articulate a powerful argument in favor of a new worldview where we reframe security as a shared goal for all.

RU FREEMAN is a Sri Lankan and American writer and activist. She is the author of the novels A Disobedient Girl (2009) and On Sal Mal Lane (2013), and editor of Extraordinary Rendition: American Writers on Palestine (2016). #### RECLAIMING JUDAISM FROM ZIONISM Stories of Personal Transformation edited by Carolyn L. Karcher roday Jews face a choice. We can be loyal to the ethical imperatives at the heart of Judaism—love L the stranger, pursue justice, and repair the world. Or we can give our unconditional support to the state of Israel. It is a choice between Judaism as a religion and the nationalist ideology of Zionism, which is usurping that religion.

In this powerful collection of personal narratives, thirty-nine Jews of diverse backgrounds tell their stories about the roads they have traveled from a Zionist world view to activism in solidarity with Palestinians and Israelis striving to build a peaceful, inclusive society.

Reclaiming Judaism from Zionism will be controversial. Its contributors want to demolish stereotypes of dissenting Jews as "self-hating," traitorous, and anti-Semitic. They want to strengthen alliances with progressives of all faiths. They want to nurture models of Jewish identity that replace Zionism with a Judaism once again nourished by a transcendent ethical vision.

CAROLYN L. KARCHER is professor emerita of English, American Studies, and Women's Studies at Temple University and the author of books about the struggle for racial and gender equality.

For nearly eight centuries, Moorish rule in Andalucía brought about a cultural revolution, resulting in architectural splendors like the Alhambra as well as a rich culinary history. Andaluz is a quest to illustrate the legacy of the Arabs and Berbers in contemporary kitchens through recipes from 21 cooks and chefs.

Couscous, rice, eggplant, oranges, figs, apricots, marzipan, and a wealth of spices are just a few ingredients inherited from this key period—along with meticulous agricultural techniques. # ASMA'S INDIAN KITCHEN Home-Cooked Food Brought to You by Darjeeling Express by Asma Khan photography by Kim Lightbody

A ward-winning restaurant Darjeeling Express began as a dinner party with friends; Indian food lovingly cooked from family recipes that go back generations. The recipes pay homage to Asma Khan's royal Mughlai ancestry and follow the route of the Darjeeling Express train from the streets of Bengal, through Calcutta, where she grew up, and along the foothills of the Himalayas to Hyderabad.

Platters of dishes boasting texture and intense flavor encourage you to gather for a traditional dawaat (feast). There are Feasts for Two, Family Feasts, Feasts for Friends, and Celebratory Feasts. Many of the recipes are vegetarian, there are sweet treats and drinks, too.

This is more than just a collection of delicious and accessible recipes, it is a celebration of heritage, culture, community, and quality. This is Asma's Indian Kitchen.

ASMA KHAN is chef and restaurateur of London's acclaimed Darjeeling Express, which began as a supper club, then a pop-up, before settling in its permanent location to wide acclaim. It has been featured in Time Out, Harper's Bazaar, the Guardian, and numerous others. In 2015, it was named as one of the best restaurants in London by the Evening Standard.

DARWIN'S TREE OF LIFE

by Michael Bright illustrated by Margaux Carpentier

From the first living things six billion years ago to the animals living around the world today, explore how the huge diversity of the life on Earth came to be. Follow the branches of Charles Darwin's "Tree of Life" and discover how plants and animals have evolved in many amazing ways.

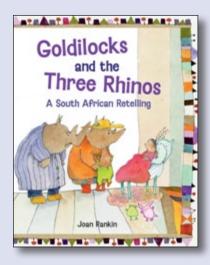

Find out why crabs run sideways, which fish was the first to walk on land, why birds are similar to dinosaurs, and why brains are located in our heads and not in our feet.

The book is stunningly illustrated by Margaux Carpentier in a bright and bold distinctive style.

MICHAEL BRIGHT worked as a producer with the BBC's Natural History Unit, winning many international radio and television awards. He is a member of the Royal Society of Biology and has written many books on wildlife, science, and conservation.

MARGAUX CARPENTIER is a painter and illustrator based in London. She works on all kind of projects, ranging from illustrated books to large scale painting and murals, and sometimes even sculptures.

"Campbell's (Interior Salish/Métis) quiet story weaves botanical facts with respect for the natural world, naming the plants in the Nle?kepmxcín language. Flett's (Cree/Métis) colorful, calming illustrations blend very well with the tone of the text, often gracefully incorporating the pulled-out Nle?kepmxcín in display type. SAN FRANCISCO A Cultural History by Mick Sinclair

Within a generation San Francisco grew from an isolated Mexican trading post with more killed trading post with more hills than people into America's major Pacific Coast city. Shaped by entrepreneurs, eccentrics, and visionaries, it became renowned for accommodating those who dared to be different. People as diverse as William Randolph Hearst, Lillie Coit, Carol Doda, Jerry Garcia, and Harvey Milk have thrived in San Francisco's permissive environment as it evolved into one of the world's most welcoming and visually stunning cities.

SICILY A Cultural History by Joseph Farrell

ong before it became an Italian offshore island, Sicily was the land Lin the center of the Mediterranean where the great civilizations of Europe and Northern Africa met. Sicily today is both familiar and unfamiliar, modernized and unchanging. Visitors will find an out-of-theway Aragonese castle; a Norman church by the side of a lesser travelled road; red Muslim-styles domes over a Christian shrine; a Baroque church of breathtaking beauty in a village; the celebrations of the patron saint of a run-down district of a city; and will stop and wonder.

ABOUT THE SERIES

A TRAVELLER'S HISTORY OF CROATIA (3RD EDITION) by Benjamin Curtis

"In this concise volume, Curtis (European history & politics, Univ. of Seattle) does an admirable job of condensing the lengthy and complex history of Croatia ... Its long journey toward independence is detailed in clear prose, and a helpful list of rulers and chronology ends the book. The maps and historical gazetteer are also useful"

This book gives the curious tourist not only a modern-day portrait of New Zealand and its far-flung islands, political systems, and economic diversity, but also looks at the early settling of this area, which covers about a fifth of the surface of the earth. The author describes New Zealand's history with a depth that allows readers to make sense of what they see in a way that no other guidebook can.

BUENOS AIRES A Cultural Guide

by Nick Caistor

AN ENGAGING INTRODUCTION TO THE VIBRANT CULTURE OF BUENOS AIRES

From the new skyscrapters along the front of the huge "river of silver" to the picturesque portside La Boca where hundreds of thousands of immigrants first faced a new continent, Buenos Aires has created its own legend, lived out today in tango bars, on football pitches, in cafes where intense debates take place, or where people simply watch the everchanging parade of passers-by.

Nick Caistor takes the reader to the insider's Buenos Aires and shows how the past has shaped its streets, how Argentine politics has left its mark on almost every corner, how each wave of new inhabitants has added to the city's cultural mix. He reveals a city obsessed by nostalgia yet rich in music, dance, and spectacle.

NICK CAISTOR, has reported on Argentina for the BBC/WGBH and is a translator as well as the author of numerous books on Latin America, including Che Guevara: A Life (also published by Interlink)

A TRAVELLER'S COMPANION TO LONDON

edited and introduced by Peter Ackroyd and Thomas Wright

RICH AND DIVERSE VIEWS OF "THE GREATEST CITY ON EARTH"

London has witnessed everything from pilgrimages, celebrations, acts of heroism and moments of religious contemplation to riots, executions, grisly murders and disastrous fires. It is a history of work and capital, of power and exuberance, and of great creativity from a rich host of artists and writers, Shakespeare and Dickens among them, but also of violent crime, exploitation, loneliness and extreme hardship; life in the poverty ridden East of the city could not be more different than life in its opulent West End. Drawing upon extracts from contemporary letters, diaries and memoirs of fascinating inhabitants and visitors, this anthology by acclaimed London historian Peter Ackroyd and Thomas Wright tells the story of the city from its earliest years up to the present day. Modern visitors and armchair readers alike are given a ringside view to the past and an unforgettable experience of the essential spirit of London.

ON-THE-ROAD HISTORIES

CALIFORNIA

by Victor Silverman and Laurie Glover

"Beginning with precolonial California and stretching through the present day, Silverman (history, Pomona Coll.) and Glover (writing, Univ. of California, Davis) cover a significant time span in a clearly organized and readable narrative. Chapters contain ample photographs, many in full color. One of this title's strongest points is its explicit mission to combat the whitewashing of California history; it does not shy away from difficult subjects or conflicts and continually emphasizes the role of minorities. With much more history than classic travel guides like Fodor's or Frommer's but less depth than an academic monograph, this should appeal to readers of popular history, who will appreciate its wide range and respect for diversity."—Library Journal

ABOUT THE SERIES

This travel series is a glorious, full-color tribute to the cultural, geographic, and historical riches of the United States. These brief histories are as idiosyncratic as the states themselves.
