WRAPPED

Crêpes, Wraps, and Rolls from around the World

by Gaitri Pagrach-Chandra photography by Keiko Oikawa

Whether as a snack on-the-go or as part of a family feast, filled pancakes or wraps are found on every Main Street and served up in homes the world over. Each country has a favorite way of serving these batter- and dough-based morsels and they are fun and easy to prepare. This eye-catching collection of international recipes covers crêpes, galettes, tacos, burritos, spring rolls, dosa, kebabs, dumplings, griddle cakes, pancakes, and pastries... all wrapped, rolled, or parceled. It's a truly exciting mix. Wrapped has a touch of the homey and the exotic in one volume, with simple dishes that are perfect for students, family cooks, and street food enthusiasts alike. With beautiful photography and delectable design, the book itself is a treat.

GAITRI PAGRACH-CHANDRA is a food historian and freelance translator. Her book, Warm Bread and Honey Cake: Home Baking from around the World (Interlink, 2010), won the Guild of Food Writers Award for Cookbook of the Year 2010. She is also the author of Sugar and Spice: Sweets and Treats from around the World (Interlink, 2013).

SALMAGUNDI

A Celebration of Salads from around the World

by Sally Butcher

photography by Yuki Sugiura

Salmagundi is a 17th-century English expression denoting a salad dish comprising, well... everything. This comprehensive new book from acclaimed author Sally Butcher looks at salad bowls across the world in 150 recipes. It features a number of archaic, traditional, and staple dishes—and a whole lot of funky new stuff as well.

Divided into fourteen chapters (Herbs and Leaves; Vegetables; Beans; Roots; Grains and Pasta; Rice, Cheese, Fish, Meat, Dips, Fruity Salads, Salads for Dessert, The Dressing Room, The Prop Cupboard), no stone is left unturned in pursuit of the ultimate salad. Recipes are flagged where relevant with tags such as “super-healthy” or “skinny-minny” or “main course” to make it more user-friendly. Heavily punctuated with Sally's trademark mixture of folklore and anecdotes, this is an essential update for the foodie bookshelf.

SALLY BUTCHER is a prolific author and blogger. Her critically acclaimed books, The New Middle Eastern Vegetarian and New Middle Eastern Street Food, are also published by Interlink.

PERSIANA

Recipes from the Middle East & beyond

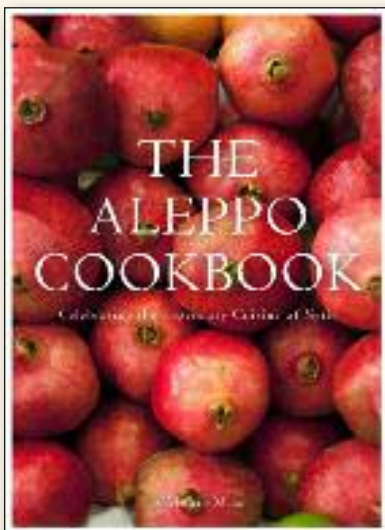

by Sabrina Ghayour

photography by Liz and Max Haarala Hamilton

A celebration of the food and flavors from the regions near the Southern and Eastern shores of the Mediterranean Sea, with over 100 recipes for modern and accessible Middle Eastern dishes, including Lamb & Sour Cherry Meatballs; Chicken, Preserved Lemon & Olive Tagine; Blood Orange & Radicchio Salad; Persian Flatbread; and Spiced Carrot, Pistachio & Coconut Cake with Rosewater Cream.

Selected by London's The Observer as their rising star in food for 2014, SABRINA GHAYOUR is one of the strongest voices in Middle Eastern food today. This chef, food writer, and cooking teacher is the charismatic Persian-born host of the popular London supper clubs specializing in Persian and Middle Eastern flavors. With regular appearances on the BBC Good Food Show, Taste London, and more, her work has been featured in numerous publications, including the Times, the Sunday Times, the Evening Standard, the Guardian, the Independent, the Telegraph, Delicious magazine, and BBC Good Food magazine.

THE ALEPPO COOKBOOK

Celebrating the Legendary Cuisine of Syria
by Marlene Matar

5

It is hardly surprising that Aleppo, one of the world's oldest continuously inhabited cities, is also home to one of the world's most distinguished and vibrant cuisines. Surrounded by fertile lands and located at the end of the Silk Road, Aleppo was a food capital long before Paris, Rome, or New York.

Here, one of the Arab world's most renowned chefs unlocks the secrets to this distinctive cuisine in this comprehensive cookbook filled with practical guidance on Middle Eastern cooking techniques as well as step-by-step explanations of over 200 irresistible recipes, such as Chili and Garlic Kebab, Syrian Fishcakes, Semolina and Butter pudding, and the queen of the mezze table, Red Pepper and Walnut Spread. Divided into 15 chapters, traditional cooking and preservation methods go hand-in-hand with today's desire for healthful and natural meals.

Wonderful full-color photography of the food, people, and markets of Aleppo make this stunning cookbook a great gift for food lovers and a fitting tribute to a beautiful city and the suffering its people have endured.

MARLENE MATAR is a highly accomplished chef and cooking teacher. She attended Beirut's L'Academia Italiana Bella Cuccina, Montreal's Ecole Professionnelle de Cuisine Chinoise, and received a Grand Diplôme in cooking and pastry from Le Cordon Bleu in Paris.

ILLUSTRATED CHILDREN'S BOOKS

LOOK BACK!

by Trish Cooke
illustrated by Caroline Binch

A BEAUTIFUL PICTURE BOOK THAT TELLS CHILDREN THAT IT IS OKAY TO BE AFRAID

"Many children's picture books aim to quieten childish terrors... But in this picture book reassurance comes with several new slants. Look Back! even has the confidence to remind children (and parents) that fear is an inevitable part of life. This is a beautiful book with painstaking, lifelike illustrations that pull you into the story from the start. Cooke tells a West Indian grandmother's tale... I love the way the exploration collides here with a celebration of the rapport between a grandmother and her grandson: family, at its best, the ultimate tonic." —The Observer

HISTORY OF INTERNATIONAL FASHION

by Didier Grumbach

This book is not just a history of fashion. Its ambition is to be the story of the creation, the evolution, and the implosion of the fashion-related professions.

Didier Grumbach walks you down the runways of fashion history and unfolds the secrets of the industry with stories and accounts from those who have played an active part in its development from the 1920s to the present. With highly-informative, entertaining text and stunning photography, he offers us a 20th century illustrated history of fashion like no other—a saga, a family business, with noble fathers and mothers, prodigal sons and daughters, enthusiasms, passions, hatreds, strokes of genius, and, of course, failures. From haute couture to the boom in ready-to-wear and the creators and designers who characterize the clothing industry, we witness the evolution in techniques, the shifting trends in the market, how an art matures, and a culture changes.

DIDIER GRUMBACH is one of the most discreet, yet powerful figures in the world of fashion. He co-founded Saint Laurent Rive Gauche; worked alongside Hubert de Givenchy; served as chairman of Yves Saint Laurent, Inc.; was director of studies of the Institut Français de la Mode; and is chairman of the Fédération Française de la Couture, du Prêt-à-Porter des Couturiers et des Créateurs de Mode, and of the Chambre Syndicale de la Haute Couture.

INTERLINK LOVE POETRY SERIES

Love is a central theme in poetry the world over, whether mystic love for the divine or the passionate and affectionate feelings between lovers, husbands and wives, parents and children, family and friends. Although the literary forms and language may not be quite so familiar in the three poetry collections in this series, the same themes reappear in today's understanding of love and romance.

These attractive collections combine a selection of translations from various languages of the best of classical and contemporary poetry with illustrations drawn from some of the finest examples of visual art from museum collections across the world.
